

The image shows a pixelated logo consisting of a small square above the letters 'SID'. The square is composed of a 3x3 grid of pixels, with the center pixel being black and the surrounding pixels being a mix of light and dark gray. The letters 'SID' are rendered in a bold, blocky font. The 'S' is on the left, followed by 'I' and 'D'. Each letter is composed of a grid of pixels, with the main body of the letters being black and the edges being a mix of light and dark gray. The 'I' and 'D' have a horizontal bar at the top, which is also composed of a grid of pixels.
